THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW, THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW, and BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE. THE above Periodicals are reprinted in New York, immediately on their arrival by the British Steamers, in a beautiful clear type, on fine white paper, and are faithful copies of the originals. Blackwood's Magizine being an exact fac-simile of the Edin uigh

They embrace the views of the three great parties in England-Tory, Whir, and Radical. " Hack wood" and the "London Quar terly" are Tory; the "Edinburgh Review" Whig; and the "West minster Review" Rudical. The "North British Review" is more of a religious character, having been originally edited by Dr. Chalmers, and now, since his death, being conducted by his son-inlaw, Dr. Hanna, associated with Sir David Brewster. Its literary character is of the very highest order the subscription money is paid in full to the publishers, without recourse to an agent. A late arrangement with the British publishers of Blackwood's Magazine secures to us early sheets of that work, by which we shall be able to place the entire number in the hands of subscri bers before any portion of it can be reprinted in any of the American Journals. For this and other advantages secured to our subscribers, we pay so large a consideration, that we may be compelled to raise the price of the Magazine. Therefore we repeat ' subscribe while the p ice is low.' Remittances and communications should be always addressed post paid or franked, to the publishers, LEONARD SCOTT & CO., 79 Fulton st., New York.
